MOSQUITO SPRAY PLANNED

Mr. Currie Beaton of the Plymouth County Mosquito Control met with Mattapoisett Selectmen last week. He said that mosquito ditches will be cleaned up and spraying of breeding places will be done. Two sprays are planned for Mattapoisett - one about July 4th and one later in the summer. Malathion Spray (not DDT) will be used and was described by Mr. Beaton as a harmless spray.

REGULATION FOR HOLIDAY

Sale of alcoholic beverages in Mattapoisett on Memorial Day is set as follows: package stores will be closed all day, restaurants may serve liquors after 1 P.M., and drug stores are not allowed to sell except by prescription.

TINKHAMTOWN REQUESTS

The Tinkhamtown Improvement Society asked Mattapoisett Selectmen for traffic lines to be painted at Almeida's corner and at the curve near the home of Mrs. Anthony Sylvia. They also requested a reflecting sign be placed at the end of Long Plain Road. They asked that the Fairhaven Water Company be asked, by letter, to clean up the west side of the Mattapoisett River of dead branches, trees, etc.

SCHOOL NEARING COMPLETION

The new Hammondtown School is now 64% complete.

JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night with the worthy master Wayne Sylvia presiding. Honored guests were Deputy Eleanor Maddox of Chelmsford, and Vice-Commander John Raphael of the 10th Council, American Legion, adjutant of Florence Eastman Post 280 in Mattapoisett.

Under new business, the Juniors voted to cancel its May 27th meeting. On Friday, June 10th, they will work the degree.

Jane Harris, Home and Community Service chairman, reported on the stuffed toys she is making, a State Grange project for girls. Joseph Alves reported for the Sunshine committee.

Commander John Raphael was presented by the lecturer, Joseph Alves, as speaker for the evening. A drill was put on and then Mr. Raphael spoke on "Memorial Day". He told of the First World War and World War II. He emphasized what to do and how to give proper treatment to the American Flag, especially when a Flag is to be flown at half mast. Mr. Raphael also took the Junior obligation and became an honorary member of the Junior Grange. The program closed with a retiring drill by the team. Punch and cookies were served by Dale and Doris Fearing.

TEACHER AT ORRHS RECEIVES SUMMER GRANT

James M. Pasquill, an algebra teacher at Old Rochester Regional High School for the past four years, has received a National Science Foundation Summer Institute grant in Mathematics at Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas. Mr. Pasquill chose this grant after being awarded grants at Fort Hays Kansas State College, Muskingum College, Illinois Institute of Technology and the University of Kentucky as well. He is now working on a Master's Degree in Mathematics and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Textile Chemistry from Southeastern Massachusetts Technological Institute, a Master's Degree in Education from Bridgewater State College and has done graduate work at Stonehill College. Mr. Pasquill resides on Juniper Street in Mattapoisett, with his wife, the former Elinore Dreher of Fairhaven, and their three children, James II, William and Sandra.

conduct graduation exercises for its first class in Medical Self Help on Thursday evening, May 19, at 7:30 P.M. at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall.

Representatives of the State Civil Defense Agency, American Red Cross and local officials are expected to be present for the awarding of Certificates in Red Cross Standard First Aid and Medical Self Help to over 50 graduates.

The students have recently completed a 12-hour course which included movies and classroom practice sessions in such subjects as Bleeding and Bandaging, Fractures and Splinting, and Transportation of the Injured. One of the features of the course was the showing of a 30-minute movie about the 200 bed Packaged Disaster Hospital expected shortly by Civil Defense officials.

Students, their families and invited guests will be served refreshments following the presentation of certificates.

ALCYONE CHAPTER PRESENTED WITH CUP

On Thursday evening, May 12th, at the annual meeting of the Grand Chapter Order of Eastern Star Alcyone Chapter #122, O.E.S. was presented with the highly prized Cressant Cup, given each year by the Cressants to the Chapter having gained the highest percentage of new members initiated, based on the membership as of January 1st. The trophy was presented to Mrs. Florence E. Flower, P.M., worthy matron, and Mr. Ernest B. Dorr, P.P., worthy patron at a lovely ceremony held at the Springfield auditorium. The occasion was especially noteworthy because this was the 10th anniversary of the presentation of the cup and it was presented to a former Cressant, Mrs. Flower, who was a member in 1955.

RUMMAGE SALE

Alcyone Chapter #122, O.E.S. will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, May 12st, from 9 to 12 at the Marion Town Hall. The hall will be open Friday, May 20th, from 1 to 4 P.M. for donations.

ART EXHIBIT AT ART CENTER

Many different mediums have been used by Mrs. Charles Shumway and Mrs. Richard Zens and family whose work forms a part of Marion Art Center's Spring exhibit featuring seven Marion artists. Mrs. Shumway attended St. Mary's in the Mountains School, and the Rhode Island School of Design. She studied under Leroy Smith, Sheila Warren and Weston Andrews. She has exhibited in Plymouth and in Providence, and one of her murals is at Brown University.

Mrs. Zens who attended the Cleveland School of Arts and who won a scholarship for post-graduate work was formerly a professional portraitist in Waban, Mass. Both her daughters are art majors, one having attended Skidmore College, and the other having studied both at Skidmore and in Japan. Together these girls shared a summer studio at Chatham where they made and sold enamel work.

The exhibit of seven Marion artists to which Mrs. Shumway and the Zens family have contributed has still a week to run and can still

BENEFIT AUCTION

An event that promises to attract antique lovers has been scheduled to take place at the Kittansett Club's "Hurricane Hall", East Marion, on July 18 at 7:30 P.M. Every dollar realized will go to the sponsors of this affair, the Massachusetts Heart Association", Southeastern Chapter, recently inspired to renewed activity as a result of recent sensational advances in the treatment of heart patients.

The committee in charge of the affair, which met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Lipsitt last week, arranged for the benefit auction of items contributed by merchants and private individuals. Mrs. Arthur O. Wellman, Jr. is serving as co-chairman with Mrs. Lipsitt. Others on the committee are Mesdames Edwin Babbitt, Jr., Frank Babbitt, Robert Bryden, Jr., J. Newton Barrows, Richard Zens, John Coburn, Jr., Burnham L. Goddard and Claus A. Cosman.

Among the many articles to be auctioned, contributed to date, are interesting and valuable antiques, objects of arts, heirlooms and gift items donated by merchants of Marion and surrounding towns. Paintings by known artists and handmade ceramics will also be found in the collection. A catalogue will be available which will indicate the donors of the various items and descriptions of them.

Tickets for the occasion will be by invitation only, and those interested in attending may contact Mrs. Lipsitt or Mrs. Wellman in Marion.

Mr. Robert E. Mower, local antique authority, has contributed his services as auctioneer and he promises a most interesting event.

It was announced at the meeting that the final figure realized in the town of Marion in the recent heart fund drive reached the all time high total of $1,742.50.

NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION MEETING

Last meeting for this year for the Girl Scout Neighborhood Association will be held May 24 at 10 A.M. at the home of Mrs. Gordon Larcom.

LETTER - DEAR CITIZENS:

I would like, at this time, to report that through your cooperation and graciousness a sum of $1004.55 was received during Heart Month, February, 1966. This amount has been one of the largest contributions ever recorded for the town of Mattapoisett.

Although my family and I have only lived in Mattapoisett for a short period of time, we have never lived in a community where friendship and courtesy has been displayed as openly as it has is our community.

I wish to thank the Heart Fund Volunteers and citizens of Mattapoisett for their cooperation

SENIOR CLASS TO PRESENT PLAY

The senior class at Old Rochester Regional High School will present Pillow Talk, a comedy in three acts, May 21, in the Gilbert D. Bristol, Jr. auditorium. Matinee and evening performances will be staged at 2 and 8. Christie Hayes and Byron Lafferty have the feature roles in this adaptation of the highly successful screenplay that starred Doris Day and Rock Hudson. Christie plays the attractive blonde interior decorator, Jan Morrow. Byron is songwriter Brad Allen, a guy who likes his girls. Jan Pelczarski is Jonathan Forbes (Tony Randall in the screen version), a playboy millionaire who'd like to make Jan his third wife. Phyllis Hartley is Jan's maid, Alma, one more at home on the telephone listening to Jan's conversations. Also in feature roles are Wayne Hardy as Pierot, Jan's partner in the interior decorating business, and Karen Chase as Mrs. Walters, a client with the decorating tastes of a "water buffalo". Robert Lawrence plays her son Tony, a snobbish young man "fresh" from the playing fields of Harvard. Others making up the 21-player cast are Aldora Mendes, as Marie; Roberta Coggeshall as Yvette, and Alicia Crabbe as Eileen, all telephone girl friends of Brad. Lorna Waddington is the impressionable Miss Dickenson from the phone company, the gal who succumbs to Brad's wiles. June Bosworth is Bessie, Brad's maid, while Don Dorr plays Graham, a private eye in Jonathan's hire. Other roles are handled capably by Marion Fernandes and Priscilla Smith (also phone company employees), Susan Brinkema and Janice Moody, as customers of Jan, and Maureen Duff and Beverly Andrews as two of Jan's assistant decorators.

Don't miss Pillow Talk! Tickets are on sale at Tinkham's Pharmacy, Mattapoisett; Browne's in Marion and Lloyd's Market, Rochester. Tick-

MUSICAL PROGRAM TO BENEFIT SCHOLARSHIP

The Teachers' Club of the Old Rochester Regional High School is sponsoring a musical program for teen-agers in the local communities. There will be two performances; one held at 3:00 P.M. and the other at 7:30 P.M. on May 25. The Citizen's Scholarship Foundation will benefit from these performances. Tickets may be obtained from teachers, the high school principal's office, Tinkham's Pharmacy in Mattapoisett; Browne's Pharmacy in Marion and Lloyd's Market in Rochester.

The program will be presented by The Cowsills from Middletown, Rhode Island. The Cowsills are a family group comprised of the father, Bill, Sr.; mother, Barbara; Bill, Jr. 17; twins Bobby and Richard 16; Paul 13; Barry 11; John 9 and daughter Susan 6.

COUNTRY FAIR

This year's Rochester Parent-Teachers Association 5th annual Country Fair promises to be one of the biggest and most exciting events held in this area, with a versatile program of events and attractions planned to appeal to the individual taste and enjoyment with something for everyone from the senior citizen down to the toddler set. The fair, set for 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. Saturday, May 21, on the Rochester Memorial School grounds, Pine Street, will feature a continuous schedule of activities and games with a variety of merchandise booths available for shoppers.

Highlights of the fair will include the following: the appearance of Cousin Dave of WBSM who will appear with Don Edward's Country
